I am a second-year PhD candidate at Radboud University, specializing in Knowledge-Enriched Conversational AI, co-advised by Professors Arjen P. de Vries, Maarten de Rijke, and Faegheh Hasibi. My research interests encompass 1) Employing neuro-symbolic solutions for reasoning with language models, and 2) Developing adaptive systems that dynamically choose the best answering strategy—providing a direct response, retrieving information, or engaging in reasoning—based on user input characteristics.
